

A Teamwork Approach to Caring for Your Aging Parents

Sometimes “it takes a village” to care for a frail or ailing older person. A care team might include a spouse, adult children, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

Join us to learn how to keep sibling and other family relationships strong throughout the process. Bring the whole family to this interactive workshop! Facilitated by Jane Relin, MSW, LICSW.

Tuesday: February 19, 2013

7:00 – 9:00 p.m.
